

ANNUAL REPORT

Dr. Adarsh Somashekar, our guest of honour for this morning, Honourable Chairman, Vice Chairman, Distinguished Guests, Staff members, Ladies and Gentlemen and my very dear students.

It is with immense pleasure and pride that I welcome you to our Annual Day Celebration.

Greenfield Public School is the brain child of our illustrious Chairman Mr. Kudroli who has over 47 years of experience in the field of education. Over the years and under his guidance our group of institutions have grown into establishments of great repute and academic excellence. Our Vice Chairman Mr. A Kudroli is dynamic and futuristic in his vision of education and well ingrained with the values and principles that he has emulated our dear Chairman.

Above all else, Greenfield is about children and young people, their learning, their needs and being there for them when they are challenged.

We are about the whole child. We are a school which is child centered. And so, all our effort, our work and our endeavours revolve around the achievement of each student's potential, academically, socially and emotionally. We have the highest expectations for each young person in our care and, as such, it is our responsibility to do our utmost to ensure that that is exactly what each of them realizes.

We therefore work very hard to ensure that our school is a safe and happy space for each child. This is so important because the happy child is the child who learns and succeeds best.

Presentation of the school report on its Annual Day is an enduring tradition to take time to pause, turn around, and to look at the fruitful year gone by. A year in which we have achieved both the expected and the unexpected, while setting various milestones and then synergizing ourselves to move ahead to face the challenges in the coming year.

The Early Childhood section at Greenfield provides a nurturing and stimulating environment that is perfect for young minds to feel comfortable to explore, ask questions and develop love for learning. Children learn while they play and have fun. We have focused on developing reading skills through phonics in our children and we are pleased to report we have been very successful and our tiny tots have developed a love for reading.

This year we introduced a sensory walk for children. A sensory walk is a creative and playful way for kids to build sensory pathways, connections in the brain that are responsible for sight, touch, sound, etc., which enable kids to complete complex, multi-stage tasks. A sensory path is a great way for kids to develop motor skills like balance, hand-eye coordination, and spatial awareness.

Modern research has reconfirmed that children have different gifts and there is no one, single method to draw the best out of them. Our approach to education encompasses the rich diversity in the ways children absorb and react to stimuli, relate to others around them, and manifest their various intelligences.

Our 2018 - 19 school year has been packed with scholastic and co scholastic activities. Let us together look at all the exciting things we did at Greenfield.

Mr Chairman and Mr Vice- chairman, on behalf of the staff and students of Greenfield I would like to express our deep sense of gratitude for always being our guiding star in every path we take. We would like to thank you, in all sincerity, for all that you do for us... without which all this would not be possible.

To, all of you parents who give so freely and abundantly of your time and energy in the upbringing of your children, I offer my sincere appreciation and gratitude. You are by far the most engaged and enthusiastic bunch of parents I have endeavoured with, and Greenfield would not be what it is without your support and effective partnership with us.

Thank you and we look forward to your continued support.

As lights on stage begin to dawn and curtains are drawn wide;

Get ready to buckle up for an enchanted and a thrilling ride.

Today's show will leave you spell bound and asking for more;

Coz students of GPS will be giving you a dazzling performance that is in store.
